MEDIATORS REVIEW POLITICAL EVENTS IN CARRANZA LAND

Joint Commission Turns Its Attention to the Manner in Which De Facto Government Came Into Existence.

[By Evening Herald Special Wire]
New London, Conn., Sept. 12.—The American-Mexican joint commission turned today to a review of the political events in Mexico which resulted in the establishment of the present de facto government. At the request of the American mediator, the Mexican commissioners outlined developments from the time of the Aguila Calientes convention in 1914 until the present.

The failure of the revolutionary chiefs represented at this convention to find a method acceptable to all under which each government should support military rule led to the military intervention of the United States.

No session was held, the committee going in a body to the Mass. flower to pay their respects to President Wilson.

New London, Sept. 12.—The Mexican members of the American-Mexican joint commission that is at work on a plan for restoring order in Mexico will be given an opportunity today to pay their respects to President Wilson, who came here yesterday because of the illness of his sister, Mrs. Howards.

TWO ARE KILLED AND THIRTEEN INJURED WHEN TROLLEY CAR JUMPS THE TRACK

First Serious Accident Growing Out of Street Railway Strike Occurs in New York at Early Hour Today.

RESPONSIBILITY RESTS WITH 'GREEN' MOTORMAN

Crew Is Arrested Pending an Investigation; Elevated Trains Bombarded With Bricks and Stones; Arrests Made.

[By Evening Herald Special Wire]
New York, Sept. 12.—The first serious accident of the street railway strike in this city occurred early today when a trolley car of the Union streetway company in the Bronx, operated by a "green" motorman, got beyond control on a steep grade and jumped the rails at a curve, crashed into two street cars, killing two persons and severely injuring thirteen others. Four of the injured may die. The air crew was arrested pending investigation.

After a night of intermittent fighting between the South and North elevated roads, reported to the police that they had been fired upon by strikers from roof tops. Trolleys were elevated trains were repeatedly bombarded with bricks and stones from buildings. One passenger, a woman, was struck on the head and seriously injured. Five arrests were made.

The congestion on the subway and elevated roads today was even more pronounced than yesterday, due to the fact that there was little or no service on the surface lines of Manhattan and the Bronx. Not a car wheel moved in the Westchester city of Yonkers, Mount Vernon and New Rochelle.

Violence continued as the day wore on. Strikers and competitors fought surface cars and set upon the crews of strike breakers when the latter refused to desert their posts.

Nearly one hundred strikers, most of them from Chicago and New York, appealing to Mayor Michael and the public service commission, claiming that some of the provisions made when they were engaged had been kept and that they were virtually prisoners in our streets. They alleged that armed guards prevented them from leaving and that wages due them were not forthcoming.

The mayor promised them police protection in their efforts to collect wages.

EASTERN RAILROADS ARE AFTER MEXICANS FOR SECTION HANDS

[By Evening Herald Special Wire]
San Antonio, Sept. 12.—Hundreds of Mexicans were being rounded here today for service as section hands on eastern railroads. With the movement of immigration from European countries, certain sort of labor, the railway workers are being depended largely on Mexicans for their section hands.

Like most other eastern business men, Herr Heinemann felt that the proposed "war after the war" would have a great effect on the economy of the country. He said that whatever stocks of manufactured articles might be left in the hands of the government, the war nature of the country would be a great hindrance to the recovery of our industries to a large extent.

BRIDGE COLLAPSE IS TO BE PROBED BY A JOINT COMMISSION

An Attempt Will be Made to Determine Cause of Catastrophe Near Quebec Which Caused Death of Eleven.

[By Evening Herald Special Wire]
Quebec, Sept. 12.—The St. Lawrence bridge commission will conduct a joint investigation today into the collapse of the central span of the Quebec cantilever bridge over the St. Lawrence river while it was being lowered into position. The death of eleven persons and the destruction of the bridge are the result of the collapse.

Accounts of engineers of the bridge and operators are not positive as to the cause of the collapse. Some believe that the span itself buckled first, and others that the supporting structure did not come into position, thereby throwing too much strain on the supports.

Engineers in charge of the construction work had three days, as soon as the cause of the accident is determined, to make a report.

Leaders of Both Parties Review the Returns and They All Appear Very Well Satisfied With Yesterday's Outcome.

PROHIBITION SENTIMENT BIG HELP TO MILLIKEN

Campaign Made Largely on This Issue; Democrats Claim the Returns Presage the Election of Wilson in November.

[By Evening Herald Special Wire]
Portland, Me., Sept. 12.—First thought of western Republican leaders today was that the Maine election was a good omen for the Democrats to try to explain away the Republican victory in Maine. The Republican claim that the election of the prohibition sentiment in the Republican ranks. The vote of Frederick W. Hale, the United States senator, was a surprise. The returns showed that about 50 per cent of the Progressives of Maine voted for Hale and that a large number of votes were cast for the rest of the Republican ticket.

D. L. Smith, executive secretary of the Prohibition National Association, said: "Carl E. Milliken's election as governor may be attributed largely to the strong prohibition sentiment in Maine. He made his campaign on the issue of strict prohibition law enforcement."

Senator Thomas, who is a member of the western prohibition committee, said: "The election in Maine presages the election of Wilson in November."
